DAILY SENTINEL.

WM E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

VOICE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESS!

VANCE AND HALL!!

The White Men vs. the Mongrels!!!

From the Wilmington Journal.

VANCE AND HALL.

From a telegram received from Mr. Badger, the Secretary of the Executive Committee, we are glad to announce that Governor Vance has received the nomination as the Conservative candidate for Governor, and Col E. D. Hall, of this city, for Lieutenant Governor. It gives us pleasure to place the names of these patriotic and distinguished gentlemen at the head of our columns, and shall labor faithfully and hopefully for their success. A better or stronger ticket could not have been placed before the people of the State. Their names will excite enthusiasm throughout the length and breadth of North Carolina.

Before we go to press we shall most probably be able to give the entire ticket, and feel confident that its selection will exhibit the same wise judgment shown in the nomination of the two names which head the ticket.

From the Newbern Journal of Commerce.

VANCE FOR GOVERNOR.

Who in North Carolina has not heard of Zebulon B. Vance! Who will not "rejoice," in the language of our special telegram, that he has been nominated to lead the Conservative hosts of North Carolina to another battle and to victory? Zebulon B. Vance, who never turned his back upon a friend, or an enemy, is the white man's candidate for the highest official position to which the people of North Carolina can elevate him. That he will accept the nomination is beyond all doubt; that he will canvass the State from mountains to seaboard, if time is allowed, is equally certain; and that he will literally skin his opponent is beyond all peradventure.

The nomination of Col. Hall is a merited compliment to a gallant gentleman, and to the sterling Conservatives of the lower Cape Fear.

The State Executive Committee have been exceedingly fortunate in these nominations, and the people's plain duty is to ratify them by overwhelming majorities at the ballot-box, on the day of election.

From the Old North State.

GOV. VANCE IN THE FIELD.

We are highly gratified at a rumor which reached here to-day, from Raleigh, to the effect that Z. B. Vance had been nominated by the Conservative State Executive Committee, as candidate for Governor.

The Committee have struck the right man. Vance is uppermost in the mind of every Conservative in the State. He is a rousing live man, and his clarion voice will inspire more life into the depressed and drooping hearts of the people, than any other in the State.

It is hoped Holden will meet him on the stump. He says he is not afraid to do it. Of course not. Vance protected him, once, when some wild Georgia soldiers had a notion of giving him a cravat, and will doubtless show him all possible courtesy on the stump. There are thousands of people who want to "go shoot through a hard rain at any time," Sundays excepted, to see and hear them speak. We very much hope they will not be disappointed.

From the Charlotte Bulletin.

VANCE FOR GOVERNOR.

By a telegraphic dispatch, received by one of our citizens yesterday, we are informed that at the meeting of the State Executive Committee of the Conservative party, which held its session in Raleigh, yesterday, it was determined to run the Hon. ZEBULON B. VANCE, of Mecklenburg, for Governor, and the Hon. EDWARD D HALL, of New Hanover, for Lieutenant Governor, to be voted for at the time of voting on the new constitution.

This selection will carry joy to the hearts of many North Carolinians, and cause the friends of liberty from Republicanism, and in favor of a white man's government, to leave no stone unturned to secure their election. We heartily endorse the action of our Executive Committee. No better choice could have been made. With such men as Vance and Hall, the doom of the Republican party in our State is sealed.

From the Wilmington Journal.

RADICAL TICKET.

If the Radicals had adopted a resolution that no man with a decent character and honorable reputation should be nominated upon their ticket for State offices, they could not have "filled the bill" more completely.

Of Holden and Caldwell it is useless and impossible to speak. The fathers of the English language, though anticipating the weakness and wickedness of men, never contemplated the depths to which these two have lowered themselves, and therefore did not fashion words or phrases to suitably represent them.

Jenkins, candidate for State Treasurer, was a negro-trader up to the breaking out of the war, and what money he has was made in the traffic of human flesh. He is now an accepted Radical, and therefore a good friend of the negro.

Harris, we beg pardon, Colonel Harris, who desires to superintend public works, was a Colonel of home guards, and was hunting Confederate deserters until the surrender.

Coleman is a young man of bad moral character, and ran away from his home in Concord to avoid the vengeance of a respectable colored man, whose daughter he had outraged. He is a poor lawyer, but will do well enough for the Radicals.

Mean nger is a political pedlar from Ohio. Brick Pomeroy tells some hard things about his private character, which we may be forced to publish.

Ashley is a dirty, low fellow, who has made his living among and with the negroes of this city. Should he be elected, his official absence from this place will be of service to our resident negroes, but those of the State will feel the evil influences of this bad man.

God grant that North Carolina may never be cursed by being under the control of such men. Their election will throw a moral and social blight upon the good name and future prospects of the State.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit fair, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3 Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. "In other words the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864." A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to cases in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $20 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $160. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this state, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no deb or will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March (unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until. June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

The machine in question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

A SECOND WASHINGTON.

W. W. Holden was the first man in North Carolina to nominate, and raise in the Standard the flag of, Jefferson Davis, for the Presidency of the Confederate States; and he claimed that merit in his paper.

W. W. Holden was the first man in North Carolina to call Col. Zebulon B. Vance from his command in the army to a canvass for the Governorship of the State, as the candidate of the old Union party. He was, also, the first to desert and oppose him, because he refused to concur with him in the effort to accomplish the peace which they both desired, by encouraging cowardly desertions from the army, and by harboring and protecting deserters themselves.

W. W. Holden was the first and only man in North Carolina who suggested the assassination of Abram Lincoln. No one but him ever asked "who would plot for his head?" There is no other North Carolinian who would not, and did not, blush at the baseness of the suggestion.

W. W. Holden is beyond dispute—though after a very burlesque fashion,—"first in war, first in peace: and first in the hearts of his countrymen." These countrymen now happen to be the martyr-worshippers and fanatics at the North, and the multitudes here of wandering carpet-bag Pilgrims, unsophisticated Heroes of Africa (U. H. O. A.) of all colors, and uncircumcised native scalawags, whose skins, by some mistake, happen to be white, with nothing else white about them. "God save the State!"

ADJOURNMENT.—It will be seen, by yesterday's proceedings in the so-called, that adjournment on the 12th inst. was talked of. We fear that a forty-horse power steam engine could'nt pull the mongrels away from the Treasury-teat by that time. They have already been in session 49 days, at an expense to the people of the State of more than $60,000.

THE MONGREL TICKET.

It is claimed that the so-called "Republican" State Ticket, which was put in nomination by the late hybrid assemblage in Tucker Hall, is peculiarly "loyal." In one sense it is. It is "loyal" to the Reconstruction policy of Congress, which aims to place the negro above the white man, in the enjoyment of political privileges—which assumes to control suffrage in the States,—and which Thaddeus Stevens, himself, declares to be outside of the Constitution.—In allegiance to a Constitutional Union,—the only Union worth having or preserving, and the only Union which can stand the shock or assaults of time,—the Conservative ticket is the only "loyal" ticket in the field.

Besides, most of these men on the mongrel ticket, if loyal, are very suddenly so. A wonderful change has come over the spirit of their dreams, in a marvellously short time.

W. W. Holden is the father of secession, and gloried over the act, even to preserving, as an heir loom, the gold-pen with which "he did the deed." When his knees got weak, he urged peace for the sake of "saving slavery." After the surrender, he was the only leading man in North Carolina who advocated President Johnson's policy as right per se. He declared that unqualified opposition to negro suffrage was the most "conspicuous of Union landmarks," and asserted that the usurpation, on the part of Congress, of attempting to "say who should and who should not vote in North Carolina, was monstrous and infamous. We will prove all of this, by extracts from the Raleigh Standard, in good time.

Tod R. Caldwell, who now, in the bitterness of his little nature, goes for hanging so called "rebels," at one time, during the war, was engaged in making speeches, urging men to volunteer—while he stayed at home.

David A. Jenkins is an old negro-trader, who made all his money by the "traffic in human flesh."

Wm. M. Coleman was a rampant secessionist, and, in the beginning of the war, was for sending all the Yankees to perdition sooner than one could telegraph from Concord to Raleigh.

Col. W. B. Rodman, to this day, we suppose, has not abandoned the doctrine that secession is right in theory; for he is practically acting upon it. He was a Judge of one of the Military Courts, during the war, and sentenced many poor fellows to death for desertion—desertion to which they were instigated by many of the very men with whom he is now co-operating, and with whom he is now engaged in branding with infamy, by putting them under political ostracism, the very men with whom he was associated in the army.

Chas. R. Thomas was an officer of the "rebel" State government of North Carolina, during the war, and, when a candidate for the Confederate Congress, declared that our separation from the old Union was, and ought to be, eternal.

Thomas Settle was an officer in the Confederate army; and yet, in the Convention of 1865, he virtually declared that every man engaged in the "rebellion" was a "murderer,"—the most atrocious sentiment that ever fell from mortal lips, and one that will stick to Captain Settle like the shirt of Nessus!

Gen. G. W. Logan was a member of the Confederate Congress.

J. W. Bowman was, at one time, an officer in the Confederate service.

C. L. Harris voted, in the Legislature of 1865-'66, against allowing negroes the privilege of giving evidence in the Courts of Justice!

S. S. Ashley and H. J. Menninger belong to that class of abolition fanatics, who, for years before the war, were conniving at violations of the fugitive slave law, who were warring upon the institutions of the South, encouraging John Brown raids, and, thereby, fostering that feeling in the South which was ultimately forced to crop out in armed resistance,—not to the Constitution, but to the lawless designs of sectional incendiaries. Upon the shoulders of just such men rests most of the guilt and horrors of the war.

Verily, this hybrid ticket comes up to Burke's celebrated description of the Earl of Chatham's Cabinet, viz:

"He made an administration, so checkered and speckled; he put together a piece of joinery, so crossly indented and whimsically dove-tailed; a cabinet so variously inlaid; such a piece of diversified Mosaic; such a tesselated pavement without cement; here a bit of black stone, and there a bit of white; patriots and courtiers, king's friends and republicans; whigs and tories; treacherous friends and open enemies; that it was indeed a very curious show; but utterly unsafe to touch, and unsure to stand on. The colleagues whom he had assorted at the same boards stared at each other, and were obliged to ask, "Sir, your name?—Sir, you have the advantage of me—Mr. Such a one—, I beg a thousand pardons—." I venture to say, it did so happen, that persons had a single office divided between them, who had never spoke to each other in their lives, until they found themselves, they knew not how, pigging together, heads and points, in the same truckle-bed."

VANCE AND HALL.

We are beginning to hear the echo of the State Conservative press to the nominations by the Executive Committee. We present a number of extracts, to-day, and will continue to give such as may be received. It will be seen that the happiest accord exists.

We admonish the motley clans, who are gathered under the black banner, in advance, that they may prepare for a canvass, upon the part of the Conservative white men of North Carolina, which, in point of energy and determination, has never had its equal in this State. We all intend to spare no honorable or lawful effort to save the State from the clutches of the destructives, who would rule it to its utter ruin.

Our gallant standard bearers will do their duty. They will set an example of earnestness and activity, which the least of us will be ashamed not to follow.

CRAVEN.—The Conservatives of this County will meet in Newbern, on the 10th inst., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature, County officers, &c. This is the genuine pluck. Whatever the odds against us, let us contest every inch of ground with the hybrids.

PRINCIPLES—NOT MEN.

The Radicals, in their late nominations, set, we presume, upon this old political dogma. Their principles are mean, grovelling, despicable, and they therefore select the same class of men to illustrate and carry them out. This is, no doubt, necessary and proper. Men of character and respectability, whose interests are linked with the interests of society, and whose aspirations rise above the cess pool of demagogueism, can not support mean, despicable principles or illustrate them in their conduct.

We have long held that bad, mean men cannot be trusted with good principles.—They will either adulterate or mutilate, or wholly abandon, them. Hence we go for "principles and men." We will not support mean, bad principles, nor will we support mean, bad men. If the principles of a party are sound and worth anything, they should be enforced and illustrated by good men, the best that can be obtained for the occasion.

The Conservative ticket, we judge, has been framed with the view to success. Our principles look to the education of the people, their encouragement to industry and enterprise, the maintenance of Constitutional liberty, and the promotion of the peace and harmony of the nation. To secure these objects, men of tried integrity, of ability and respectability, have been selected to enforce and illustrate our principles. How much soever these gentlemen have been divided in political sentiment in the past, they are believed to be a unit upon the great principles which now agitate the country. They are devotedly attached to the principles of government, as set forth in the Constitution of the United States. They are lovers of Constitutional liberty. They are anxiously desirous to promote the restoration of peace, harmony and good will, between the people of the various sections of the Union and of the States. They are friends of law and order and of their enforcement by the peaceable remedies of the Constitution, viz: the supremacy of the civil over the military power. They are friends of the negro race, but they are opposed to clothing the herds of ignorant and vicious negroes of the South with political or social positions. They are for a white man's government, to be administered for the benefit of all races and conditions. Hence, they are opposed to the new Constitution proposed for North Carolina. If there be one man on the Conservative ticket, opposed to these principles, he ought not to allow his name to remain on it.

INGRATITUDE.—The Ex-Provisional Governor had been twice defeated, flurse, foot and dragoons, by the white people of this State, in his modest aspirations after the Governorship. He was politically down at the heel—clean down. Not a man in the State was so heartily despised. In this low estate, he was taken by the hand by His Excellency, the President of the United States, and made, what he most desired, short of his soul's salvation—a Governor!

After his time expired, the President again attempted to honor him by a foreign appointment, nominating him to the U. S. Senate, as Minister to San Salvador, with a salary of $9,000 per annum, and $4,500 as an outfit. The Radical Senate rejected the nomination—but were even then acquiring an ascendancy that has since nearly overthrown the Government. The nominee was shrewd. He ascertained which way the wind lay, and quietly acquiesced in the Radical Senate's decision. Returning home, the almost Minister began to give the cold shoulder to his benefactor, and to coalesce with those wild spirits who had shown him this indignity. By the time of the President's visit to N. C., the quondam Governor had completely veered around, and was whacking away at the very policy he had himself established, and, in every issue of his paper, sneering at the high official who had been to him the fountain of honor—all the official honor he ever knew. He had watched the signs of the times. Gratitude? What are past favors to those that are to come? The Ex Provisional Governor could not afford to call—even by a little ceremonious visit—on the President while among us, and that high official had the mortification of going back to Washington City without even seeing his old protege.

And now no paper, even in New Hampshire or Massachusetts, is half so energetically urging his impeachment, or would so rejoice to see him punished for "high crimes and misdemeanors," as this same Standard.

Lives there a man, in this broad land of ours, so intensely ungrateful, so ingeniously inconsistent, and so utterly shameless?

PANIC STRICKEN.—Our information leads us to believe that the Conservative ticket, just nominated by the Executive Committee, has thrown terror into the camp of the Radicals. Many of the men, upon whom they have relied, cannot sustain the ticket, and declare their determination to go against it. Others, we learn, will scratch, removing the names of several of their own nominees and putting on some of ours instead. We should not be surprised if such moderate Republicans as Dick, Pool, Dockery, Gorsline, and others, cannot swallow it, but yet some of them will swallow the Constitution, which is ten-fold worse than the Radical ticket. The Radical ticket, even if elected, (which we think impossible,) can last but a few years, but the Constitution, if adopted, may be fixed upon us for a generation.

From the Wilmington Star.

THE PILGRIM FATHER.

The Pilgrim Father, who represents the constituency of Plymouth Rock in the Gorilla Convention, has been nominated by his brethren for the position of Superintendent of Public Instruction, an office created by the "loyal" body now manufacturing a Constitution for North Carolina, at the moderate cost of two hundred dollars per hour. S(weet) S(cented) Ashley to be elected to office by the white men of North Carolina! The canting old hypocrite may as well abandon his thirst for office at once; for he has had his last chance at the treasury of North Carolina.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

MORNING SESSION.

MONDAY, March 2, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. H. T. Hudson, of the city.

A communication from Gen Canby, in regard to the contested election cases, was announced, and referred, without reading, to the committee on Privileges and Elections.

Mr. Abbott moved to suspend the rules and take up the report of the committee on Immigration.

The Chair decided the motion to be at this time out of order.

Mr. Abbott appealed from the decision of the Chair, and the appeal was not sustained.

Mr. Andrews presented a petition for a divorce between certain parties. Referred.

Mr. Blume, a petition of the same character. Referred.

RESOLUTIONS, ORDINANCES, &C.

By Mr. Rich: A resolution raising a committee of two from each Congressional Districts, to suggest what bills should be acted on by this Convention. Lies over.

Mr. Heaton offered a resolution, that the Convention shall adjourn on the 12th inst. Both lie over.

By Mr. Rodman: A resolution increasing the committee of three on divorces, &c.—Lies over.

By Mr. Candler: A resolution approving the impeachment of President Johnson; and giving thanks to Congress for so doing.—Lies over.

By Mr. Jones, of Caldwell: A resolution that the Convention meet at 9½ o'clock, A. M. Lies over.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Mr. Abbott moved to make the report of the committee on Immigration the special order for to morrow. Lost.

He then moved to take it up now. Carried.

Mr. Abbott proceeded, at length, to advocate the provisions of the report, particularly the feature of establishing an Agency in New York. He argued the matter some time, to show the benefits that would accrue to the State, if such a measure was adopted, and cited the example of various States that had pursued the same plan with the most beneficial results.

Mr Candler offered an ordinance, as a substitute, empowering the Legislature to create the office and authorizing the Governor to appoint, and the Legislature to confirm, the Commissioner.

Mr. Heaton favored the original ordinance. He thought the Legislature could modify or change it when proper. He had seen the best benefits from immigration in the North west.

On motion of Mr. Abbott, the ordinance was made the special order for to morrow, at 10½ o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Heaton, the rules were suspended to take up his resolution, acting upon the 12th inst. for adjournment.

Mr. Forkner, as chairman of the committee on adjournment, accepted.

Mr. Rodman moved an amendment that, after the 12th inst., no member shall receive pay.

Mr. Heaton accepted it.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, after some remarks concerning the matter, said that he did not think they could possibly adjourn before the 15th or 20th inst.

Mr. French, of Chowan, favored Mr. Rodman's amendment.

Mr. Nicholson was in favor of adjourning on the 12th inst., but hoped Mr. Rodman would withdraw his amendment, as he considered it a discourteous one. As for himself, when his pay was stopped, he intended to go home.

Mr. Candler offered a substitute, "that it is the sense of this Convention that we adjourn on the 12th inst; but if the work is incomplete, that this Convention have the power to rescind its action in this case." Carried.

SPECIAL ORDER—HOMESTEAD.

The question recurred on the 2nd. section, as amended.

Hood, (negro) moved its adoption.

Mr. Rich moved to strike out, in lines 1 and 2, the words "not exceeding one hundred acres of land." Carried.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, offered an amendment, to come in line 9, after "debt," as follows: "but no property shall be exempt from taxes, or for payment of obligations contracted for the purchase of said premises." Carried.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, offered a substitute for the whole, leaving the matter with the Legislature. He thought the Convention was going too far; sticking every small matter in the Constitution. It would be a cumbrous affair. He did not see why the Homestead should be regulated here.

The yeas and nays were called on Mr. Graham's substitute, and had, resulting in yeas 32, nays 62.

Mr. Tourgee moved to postpone the further discussion of this matter and make it the special order on Thursday night next.

Hood, (negro,) wished to have the report recommitted. Not agreed to.

Mr. Tourgee's motion then prevailed.

By consent, Mr. Tourgee submitted a report from the committee on Towns, Cities, &c; which was ordered to be printed and made the special order for Thursday next, at 12 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Ashley, the report of the committee on Education was made the special order for Friday next.

Mr. Welker moved to make the report of the committee on Punishments and Penal Institutions the special order for to morrow at 11 o'clock. Carried.

Mr. Rodman moved that his ordinance for Relief be made the special order for to-morrow evening. No objection.

The report of the committee on Corporations, other than Municipal, was taken up, when

Mr. Bryan renewed his motion to reconsider the vote by which section 4 was stricken out.

Mr. Tourgee opposed the motion

Mr. Bryan's motion to reconsider was put to a vote and lost.

[Here it was ascertained that the bill had not been engrossed, on account of the records of that day being misplaced, and the further consideration was postponed until this evening.]

CALENDAR.

Mr. Morton's ordinance, repealing the ordinance passed in the Convention of '65, prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors at the Company Shops, was taken up.

Mr. Welker opposed the passage of the ordinance. The act prohibiting the sale of liquors there was passed at the special request of the Railroad Company.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, concurred with Mr. Welker.

On motion, the ordinance was laid on the table.

Mr. Watts' ordinance, prohibiting the collection of all debts based upon the purchase or hire of slaves, and all debts contracted to sustain the rebellion, coming up,

Mr. Watts said this subject did not enter into repudiation, except so far as necessary. He was not willing to repudiate any debt except for the purchase or hire of slaves.

Mr. Candler offered an amendment: "Provided, that debts contracted for the purchase or hire of slaves, prior to January '63, shall be collected."

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to lay the ordinance on the table, saying, I do not rise to discuss the morality of owning property of this kind, but can see no reason why these debts should be placed on different footing from others. The legal title to this species of property was admitted not only by our own Courts, but by those of the United States, and the return of fugitives is provided for in the Constitution. Such being the case, how did the Proclamation of President Lincoln affect the question?—I consider that it was merely an act of war and not binding upon this State until carried out by force of arms. All writers hold that a blockade amounts to nothing until rendered effectual,—that a paper blockade is no blockade at all. As I am unwilling to repudiate any honest debt, I cannot vote for this resolution. I therefore move that it lie on the table.

Mr. Graham's motion to table was put to a vote and prevailed.

The President announced as committee on final arrangement of the Constitution:—Messrs. Heaton, Nicholson and Rodman.

Mr. Rodman said that he had introduced a resolution in relation to divorce, this morning, which he desired to see adopted. He wished to see the whole matter of divorce referred to a committee of five.

After some debate, the motion to suspend the rules and take up the resolution was put and carried.

Mr. Candler moved to lay the resolution on the table. Lost.

The resolution read as follows:

Resolved, That the committee on Divorce of 3 be increased to 5, and that all applications for divorce be referred to that committee, and that this Convention will in such case adopt and confirm the report of said committee, without further examination.

Mr. Hodnett was not willing to commit himself to the legislation of a committee in so important a matter.

Mr. Welker was also opposed.

After some further debate the matter was indefinitely postponed, on motion of Mr. Ing.

Mr. Forkner moved to adjourn. Lost.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to adjourn sine die. Lost.

After some little debate upon unimportant matters, the Convention adjourned until this evening.

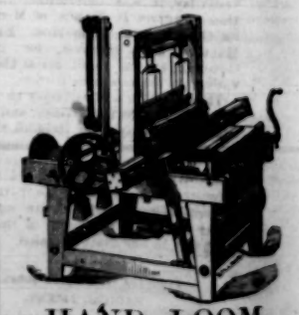
MENDENHALL'S



HAND LOOM.

OFFICE OVER S. H. YOUNG'S STORE,
FRONTING TUCKER HALL,
Fayetteville Street,
RALEIGH.

FROM FIFTEEN TO THIRTY YARDS CAN be woven on this Loom in a day.

It can be run either by POWER or by HAND.

Its parts are SELF CHANGING! By the turning of an easy crank, it lets the Warp off, winds up the Cloth, treads the Treadles, and throws the Shuttle. It weaves Jeans, Satinets, Linsey, Basket Twill, Double-Plain Cloth, various kinds of Ribbed Goods, Fencing Twills of all kinds, Fine Cotton, Tow, or all-wool Cloth, Bagging, Towels, Table Linen, Balmoral Skirts, Woollen Linen and Hemp Carpets; in fact, anything from a Handsome Silk to a Rag Carpet!

This Loom has been extensively introduced into the Southern States since the war, and is proving a great success.

FIVE HUNDRED LOOMS

have been sold in the single State of Georgia, in the last six months, "and in no instance has there been a complaint." So says Mr. Ballentine, who is the General Agent for that State.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TUESDAY, MARCH 3, 1868.

WAKE COUNTY CONVENTION.

We are requested to announce that a meeting of the Conservatives of Wake County will be held, in this City, at the Court House, on Thursday, the 5th. of March, at 12 o'clock M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Legislature and for county offices.

There being no time left for holding precinct meetings, all whom this announcement may reach are requested to communicate the information, in order that, if possible, citizens from all portions of the County may be present on the occasion. Some Conservative in each district can easily apprise many of his neighbors of the contemplated meeting.

CONSERVATIVE RALLY!

There will be a meeting of the Conservatives of Raleigh, to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at the Court House.

The object is to ratify the nominations made by the Conservative State Executive Committee.

Speeches may be expected. Let us have a grand rally!

CAMPAIGN PAPER.

The Weekly Sentinel, during the canvass, will be made a vigorous and earnest campaign paper for the Conservative cause. We invite our friends to send us clubs at the following rates:

Clubs of ten for Weekly Sentinel, for 3 months, $1, cash in advance.
Clubs of twenty for Weekly Sentinel for 3 mo $7.50 cash in advance.

A greater number at same rates of discount.

Every Conservative is constituted an Agent to send us clubs.

BUMMERS.—In April, 1865, when Sherman's army invaded North Carolina, the bummers scattered all over the country everywhere, and pillaged every house and farm, however small and humble. They ransacked trunks and drawers and tore up or abstracted the clothing of the family,—carried off horses and killed poultry,—insulted the female members of households and maltreated the old men,—in many cases took the last pound of meat and the last dust of meal, and left the little children crying with hunger. Neither whites NOR BLACKS escaped.

Some of these "bummers" will, in April, 1868, without doubt, be candidates for the suffrages of the very people who were thus outraged. Was ever such impudence heard of before? And do these creatures expect that those whom they thus injured will vote for them, now? If they could so far forget themselves as to do so, their wives and children would cry shame upon them.

What is Moses Patterson's watch? What are all Aunt Ailsey's silver shillings?

A VETERAN AND FAITHFUL OFFICER.—We have heard, within a day or two past, of an instance of official promptitude, which deserves to be mentioned. It is generally known—at least among the legal profession—that the Clerk of the Supreme Court is allowed twenty days after its adjournment to make up his certificates, &c., for the Courts below. It is a duty involving a heavy amount of labor and much care.—The Court adjourned on Saturday last, at 12, M., and by 9 o'clock of the same evening, the veteran and efficient Clerk, Edmund B. Freeman, Esq., had deposited in the Post-office all of his certificates, fully and with scrupulous exactness prepared. When the age of the present incumbent is considered, this is remarkable; but it will surprise no one who knows Mr. Freeman's energy, capacity and fidelity. He is a model Clerk, and a good copy for all younger officials.

EDUCATION NEEDED.—We are told that Mr. Cannon, one of the Radical nominees for the Judgeship in the Western counties, is quite illiterate, and that Bowman is not much better. Of the two, Cannon has a little more knowledge of law, but Bowman spells better. It it said that Cannon in variably writes January beginning with a G.

ACCEPTS.—We learn that Capt. Thomas Settle, who is in this City, is willing to run on the Mongrel ticket. But a few weeks back, he declared that he was done with negro Radicalism, and did not hesitate to denounce, openly and publicly, the designs and purposes of the leaders. Another case of the "milk in the cocoa nut."

DAWKINS, of Illinois, and McDonald, of Chatham, the opposing Radical candidates for Congress, left Raleigh, on yesterday, on a stumping tour. They go to speak, the present week, we understand, at Oxford and Warrenton.

ADDITIONAL STATE CANVASSERS.

The original draught having been mislaid, the following names were inadvertently omitted from the list of Conservative State Canvassers, published on yesterday, viz:

Hon. B. S. Gaither,
" Josiah Turner,
" D. G. Fowle,
John H. Haughton, Esq.,
Col. Wm. A. Jenkins,
Wm. Eaton, Jr., Esq.,
R. F. Armfield, Esq.,
Edward Conigland, Esq.,
A. A. McKoy, Esq.,
P. H. Winston, Esq.,
W. McL. McKay, Esq.,
Col. S. H. Walkup,
Col. Wm. Johnston.

THEN.

"WHO WILL PLOT FOR THE HEADS OF ABE LINCOLN AND GEN. SCOTT?"
—W. W. Holden, June 5th, 1861.

NOW.

"Our beloved State will once more put on the garments of prosperity; and our people will be contented and happy through the long ages reserved for the existence of the government which Washington established, and which LINCOLN labored and died to preserve!

Fraternally yours,
W. W. HOLDEN, President.
JAS. H. HARRIS, 1st Vice Pres.
A. H. JONES, 2nd Vice Pres.
C. W. HORNER, Sec'y."

(Closing sentence of the address to the U. L. A. in N. C. January, 31, 1868.)

"THE CARRIER DOVE."—This is the title of a Quarterly Magazine, issued from the Mecklenburg Female College, (Rev. A. G. Stacy, Principal.) The first number is before us. It is a very handsome Periodical of 48 pages, handsomely illustrated, and its contents bear the impress of scholarly culture and refinement. It will be published at $1 per annum.

PERSON.—Henry T. Jordan, Esq. has been appointed as one of the Canvassers for this County.

ROWAN.—The Conservatives of this County will meet at Salisbury, on Saturday next. A grand turn-out is expected.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Geo. W. Norwood, Commissioner, will sell, at the Court House door, in this city, on the 11th prox., a valuable tract of land belonging to the estate of the late Sion Rogers.

Nova Scotia Plaster, for agricultural purposes: A. P. Grice, Union Car Works, Portsmouth. A. M. McPheeters, Esq., is the agent for this valuable Fertilizer in this city, and will sell it on very reasonable terms.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Wm. Woods, alias Ray, charged with stealing, swindling and getting clothing and other articles under false pretences from Martha Lane, colored, was returned to the Superior Court.

Mary Thompson, Mary White and Francis Kearsey, charged with keeping a disorderly house, and general disorderly conduct, were returned to the Superior Court.

EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE ON THE SITUATION.

CONCORD, Feb. 25th, 1868.

Ex-President Pierce, who is manifesting a deep interest in the progress of political affairs at Washington, expresses it as his opinion that the Democratic party in New Hampshire is greatly strengthened by the turn matters have taken there lately. Upon reading the President's message this forenoon, he stated that his reasons are forcibly and conclusively expressed, and that they are founded on constitutional grounds and supported by the laws which the President quotes to sustain his position. He agrees with Mr. Johnson that he is justified upon the constitutional question of his having power to remove officers appointed by his predecessor, and thinks the fact that his entire Cabinet have once designated the Tenure-of Office law unconstitutional will operate greatly in favor of Mr. Johnson upon his trial. Concerning the political aspect, he says, from letters which he is in receipt of from different parts of the State, as well as from conclusions derived from the canvassing records of the Democratic Committee, he is justified in saying that the prospects are more glorious and promising than during any other period of the present campaign.

MAY BE SO.

The National Intelligencer of yesterday thus closes a leader on the situation:

"The insolent imputations made by Radical leaders upon the courage and manhood of the Democratic masses, their bold avowals of a purpose to use violence, has already led to counter military demonstrations on the part of the people. The masses of the land would greatly prefer a decision by the highest judicial tribunals, or by the ballot-box, but before they are cheated or bullied out of both, they will make a resolute stand for the Constitution. Revolutionary violence will be met by armed preparation on the part of the people, who are intended to be subjugated—a people eminently peace-loving and sick of public disorders, but too manly and intelligent to yield their liberties and Constitution to the military demand of Stanton and Grant, and abundantly able, at the proper time, to prove to the cowardly legislative detainers of their courage that they have both the will and the nerve to be free."

SUPPORT FOR THE PRESIDENT.—The Conservative Army and Navy Union of Washington held a meeting on Tuesday night and passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, That if the worst must come to the worst; that if Congress precipitates war upon the country by its continued encroachments upon the prerogatives of the executive and judicial branches of the Government, and aggressions upon the people, we hereby pledge "our lives, our fortunes; and our sacred honors" to uphold the Chief Magistrate of the nation in defence of constitutional liberty.

The Cincinnati Commercial, a leading Republican journal, has a very temperate article upon the subject of the impeachment of Mr. Johnson, in which it warns the Senate not to act hastily, nor from partisan motives, and reminds the Radicals that they may damage rather than benefit their own party by any ill advised movement. If the Senate will approach the subject in the calm and commendable spirit which is manifested by the Commercial, it will acquit the President.

GEN. EMORY'S TESTIMONY.—Washington, February 26—1:30 P. M.—Gen. Emory astonished Radicals to-day by testifying that the only fears he had heard expressed among officers was that a treasonable organization known as the Grand Army of the Republic had been formed.—Dispatch to Balt. Gazette.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 2, P. M

Gen. Thomas received his private mail at the War Office to-day, and then visited the President. Stanton was at the War Office all day, transacting business.

The Whiskey Metro Commission have completed their investigation and are preparing their report. One of the Commissioners is reported as saying, that some of the metres were marvels of ingenuity, but would not prevent frauds with the tax at $2.

Judge Black spoke an hour on the McCardle case to-day, when becoming ill from the dense crowd, the Court adjourned.

The President signed the Bill making bounty to dead soldiers payable to certain heirs.

The Supreme Court, to-day, formally announced the postponement of all cases involving the constitutionality of the legal tender act, to the next session.

The McCardle argument will be continued from day to day, till completed.

The Secretary of Treasury decides that iron cotton ties are subject to a duty of one and a half cent per pound, Beard's patent lock to be only excepted.

Twenty officers of the Reserve Corps will be detailed to relieve the civil Bureau functionaries—thus reducing the expenses.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 2, P. M.

HOUSE.—The House assembled at 10 o'clock.—The articles of impeachment were discussed. Several verbal amendments were made, the 7th stricken out, and, at 4 o'clock, they were adopted. Vote on the first, 126 to 40; and nearly the same vote on all, except the last, on which it was 108 to 48. A protest, signed by 45 members, was not received nor allowed to be printed.

Butler, Stevens and Shanks failed in getting in new sections.

The managers nominated are the same as those chosen in caucus. No Democrats chosen, as the latter declined to act, wishing to have nothing to do with it.

The Clerk was directed to inform the Senate of these proceedings.

SENATE.—St. Marie petitioned for reward for capturing Surratt. Referred to the Committee on Claims.

A remonstrance against the constitutionality of the Supreme Court and reconstruction bills was referred to the Judiciary.

The Senate resumed the impeachment procedure. A severe contest arose over limiting speeches. The Radicals, however, contended that the prosecution would be restrained, as well as the defence. It is noticeable that several Republicans vote frequently with the Democrats. The highest vote of the minority, to-day, reached 21. This would prevent impeachment by 2 votes.

The Senate is still in session at half-past 8, having reached 23 articles of procedure without material amendment. Will conclude the matter to-night.

Wade does not vote nor preside, during these proceedings.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, March 2, P. M.

The Convention closed the suffrage debate to-day. Will vote to-morrow.

The Committee reported that only $6,000 remained out of $100,000, appropriated by the Legislature for Convention expenses.

A resolution was introduced, relative to making provisions for future expenses of the body.

In the U. S. Circuit Court, to-day, a writ of mandamus, sued out by Gen. Imboden against Gen. Schofield, to make the latter show the cause why Imboden is prevented from voting, was dismissed by Judge Underwood.

The new registration commenced to-day. The whites registered in the evening and blacks in the morning.

North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. D. IMBODEN, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public,

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c, in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a faculty of nearly one hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have proceeded their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is to be demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical assistance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people. In the present depressed condition of the country, Ours PATRONS MUST BE EDUCATED.

A CHILD'S DREAM OF A STAR.

BY CHARLES DICKENS.

There was once a child, and he strolled about a good deal, and thought of a number of things. He had a sister, who was a child too, and his constant companion.—These two used to wonder all day long.—They wondered at the beauty of the flowers; they wondered at the height and blueness of the sky; they wondered at the goodness and the power of God, who made the lovely world.

They used to say one to another, sometimes, supposing all the children upon earth were to die, would the flowers and the water and the sky be sorry? They believed they would be sorry. For, said they, the buds are the children of the flowers, and the little playful streams that gambol down the hill sides are the children of the water; and the smallest bright specs playing at hide and seek in the sky all night, must surely be the children of the stars; and they would all be grieved to see their playmates, the children of men, no more.

There was one circumstance connected with the star that used to come out in the sky before the rest, near the church spire, above the graves. It was larger and more beautiful, they thought, than all the others, and every night they watched for it, standing hand in hand at a window. Whoever saw it first, cried out, "I see the star!" And often they cried out both together, knowing so well when it would rise, and where. So they grew to be such friends with it that, before lying down in their beds, they always looked once again, to bid it good night; and when they were turning round to sleep, they used to say, "God bless the star!"

But while she was still very young, oh very, very young, the sister drooped and came to be so weak that she could no longer stand in the window at night; and when the child looked sadly out by himself, and when he saw the star, he turned round and said to the patient, pale face on the bed, "I see the star!" and then a smile would come upon the face, and a little voice used to say, "God bless my brother and the star!"

And the time came all too soon when the child looked out all alone, and when there was no face on the bed; and when there was a little grave among the graves not there before; and when the star made long rays down towards him, he saw it through his tears.

Now, these rays were so bright, and they seemed to make such a shining way from earth to heaven, that when the child went to his solitary bed he dreamed about the star and dreamed that, lying where he was, he saw a train of people taken up that sparkling road by angels. And the star, opening, showed him a great light, where many such angels waited to receive them.

All these angels who were waiting, turned their beaming eyes upon the people who were carried up into the star; and some came out from the long rows in which they stood, and fell upon the people's necks, and kissed them tenderly, and went away with them down the avenues of light, and were so happy in their company, that lying in his bed he wept for joy.

But there were many angels who did not go with them, and among them one he knew. The patient face that once had lain upon the bed was glorified and radiant, but his heart found out his sister among all the host.

His sister's angel lingered near the entrance of the star, and waited for the leader among those who had brought the people thither:

"Is my brother come?"

And he said "No."

She was turning hopefully away, when the child stretched out his arms and cried, "O, sister, I am here! Take me!" and then she turned her beaming eyes upon him, and it was night; the star was shining into the room, making long rays down towards him as he saw through his tears.

From that hour forth, the child looked out upon the star as on the home he was to go to, when his time should come, and he thought that he did not belong to the earth alone; but to the star, too, because of his sister's angel gone before.

There was a baby born to be a brother to the child; and while he was so little that he never yet had spoken a word, he stretched out his tiny form on his bed and died.

Said his sister angel to the leader:

"Is my brother come?"

And he said, "Not that one, but another."

As the child beheld his brother's angel in her arms, he cried, "O, sister, I am here! Take me!" And she turned and smiled upon him, and the star was shining.

He grew up to be a young man, and was busy at his books when an old servant came to him and said:

"Thy mother is no more. I bring her blessing on her darling son."

Again at night he saw the star and all that former company. Said his sister's angel to the leader:

"Is my brother come?"

And he said, "Thy mother!"

A mighty cry of joy went forth through all the star, because her mother was returned to her children. And he stretched out his arms and cried, "O, mother, sister and brother, I am here! Take me!" And they answered him "Not yet," and the star was shining.

He grew to be a man whose hair was turning grey, and he was sitting in his chair by the fireside, heavy with grief and with his face bedewed with tears, when the star opened once again.

Said his sister's angel to the leader, "Is my brother come?"

And he said, "Nay, but his maiden daughter."

And the man who had been the child saw his daughter, newly lost to him, a celestial creature among those three, and he said, "My daughter's head is on my father's bosom, and at her feet is the baby of old times, and I can bear the parting from her, God be praised."

And the star was shining.

Thus the child became to be an old man, and his once smooth face was wrinkled, and his steps were slow and feeble, and his back was bent. And one night as he lay upon his bed, his children standing around, he cried, as he had cried so long ago,

"I see the star!"

They whispered to one another, "He is dying."

And he said, "I am. My age is falling from me like a garment, and I move toward the star as a child. And O, my Father, now I thank thee that it has so often opened to receive those dear ones who await me!"

And the star was shining; and it shines upon his grave.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members, six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether here after in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State, to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, }
Seaton Gales, } Editors.

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any. The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 00
" " six months	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance.

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

W. E. PELL,
Proprietor.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, Feb. 15, 1868.

THE BOARD OF INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS, in consequence of a certificate made under an act of the General Assembly entitled "An Act to authorize the President and Directors of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company to put said Road under contract," ratified 27th. February 1867, having notified me to subscribe for one million, three hundred and forty-two thousand four hundred and sixty and 00/100 dollars of the capital stock of said Company, in order to pay said subscription, said proposals will be received by the undersigned at the Treasury, on the 2nd. day of March 1868, for the purchase of one million three hundred and forty-two thousand dollars, bonds of the State of North Carolina, with coupons for interest at 6 per cent. payable semi-annually on the first days of July and January in each year, at the National Bank of the Republic in the City of New York, and the principal payable at the end of thirty years from the 1st. January 1868, and bonds to be of the denomination of $1,000 each.

As collateral security for the payment of said bonds, shares of stock in the North Carolina Railroad Company are mortgaged, in
